

José Ignacio 03 Nights

Day 1 – Montevideo to José Ignacio

Land at Carrasco airport. A private transfer with a Guide will drive you for approximately 2 hours to your chosen hotel in José Ignacio, on the South Eastern coast of Uruguay. Accommodation is for 3 nights with breakfast included. Check in to your hotel and take the rest of the day at your leisure, to enjoy the beach, rest or walk around.

Day 2 – Punta del Este

Pick up from your hotel lobby to go on a Private Punta del Este City Tour.

Your tour will start with a drive through the city's residential areas. Punta del Este is an internationally renowned seaside resort and site of film and music festivals as well as international conferences. It is the chosen playground for regional and international jet setters as well as the common folk, with tourists coming from all over the world. One of the most interesting features of this place is that visitors can actually enjoy the sunrise and the sunset in the same waters due to the fact Punta del Este is on a peninsula that extends into the ocean. Your private tour will take you along the Mansa (calm) beach areas as well as the Brava (rough) ones, and then through the tree-lined residential neighborhoods of San Rafael, Cantegril and Beverly Hills, where you can appreciate some of the beautiful homes and well tended gardens. Along the way you'll be able to see the Tudor-style San Rafael Hotel & Casino no longer in business, but a traditional landmark in the resort. A brief photo stop will be made in the beautiful and panoramic viewing spot of Punta Ballena, where you will be able to see Casapueblo, the Moroccan style atelier and home of renowned Uruguayan artist Carlos Paez Vilaró. The tour will then return you to your hotel driving back along the coastline and countryside roads.

Day 3 – José Ignacio

Take the day at your leisure to enjoy the beaches and explore the surroundings.

JOSE IGNACIO is a small village in the South Eastern coast of Uruguay, and probably the most "chic" of Latin America these days. A short drive away from the busier Punta del Este, José Ignacio is the chosen spot for jet setters and the like. Not long ago, this was a sleepy fishing outpost, a refuge for loners and the occasional celebrity seeking to escape the paparazzi. Not any more; everyone here is eager to check the scene during the high season summer months of December and January. Except for a few days around Christmas, José Ignacio remains the ideal sleepy place (enough cars parked on its narrow dirt roads though) where the only sounds are
